Improvements to School safety

Your Conservative run council has invested £1.7 Million installing safety cameras outside every school in the Borough.

This is to identify motorists who endanger the lives of both children and adults by ignoring yellow lines and KEEP CLEAR areas. The new cameras are linked to the DVLA and offenders will be identified by their vehicle registration plate and a fine issued directly to their home address.

Whilst these enforcement measures will never pay for themselves by the amount levied in fines, we believe that if one child's life is saved, it will be worth the cost.

Continued investment in roads and footpaths

When we were elected in 2014, we promised to continue using our influence as your Conservative councillors to secure funding for the resurfacing of local roads and footpaths.

Because we are able to directly influence the Leader of the Council and with sound financial management of Hillingdon's resources, investment in Harefield has continued.

Many roads across the ward have been resurfaced and we are continuing to campaign for more to be done over the coming year.

Hillingdon street lights to be upgraded to LED

Conservative run Hillingdon Council is investing nearly £6 Million to renew the Boroughs 24,000 Street lights over the next two years.

The initiative will see existing street lights across the Borough upgraded to new LED lighting.

The investment is part of the Conservative administration's commitment to ensuring that our streets are safe for motorists and pedestrians. The new LED technology will see improved visibility and lower energy costs, saving around £800k a year to Hillingdon tax payers.

Henry and Jane introduce Street Surgeries

Conservative Councillors Henry Higgins and Jane Palmer introduce street surgeries for local residents.

In addition to their routine walkabouts and monthly surgeries, your Conservative councillors have recently introduced street surgeries as another way for you to hold them to account as your local representatives.

In recent months a number of street surgeries have been held across Harefield. They have been a great success with local residents and is an easy way to approach them in person with any problems you may have.

Please keep an eye out for more street surgeries in your area and remember your councillors can still be contacted at any time using the contact details below.
